Kamakshi was a Strategic Analyst by profession

but had keen interest in Geography as she was a student of Geography. Her favorite subjects were Geomorphology, Remote Sensing and GIS.

Kamakshi did graduation in Geography Honours from B.R. Ambedkar College, Delhi University. Later on, she did M.B.A from I.I.P.M. Delhi. In 2005 she moved to USA and did another M.B.A from California Lutheran University. She worked with Lockheed Martin for some time before moving to Bank of America as a Financial Analyst. In a short time of a year and half she became a Sr. Strategic Analyst in Bank of America.

A devotee of Sri Sathya Sai Baba of Puttaparthi, Kamakshi always had a smile on her face. She was compassionate, meticulous and an adorable young woman. She was a Dreamer with BIG Ideas.

Rachapudi Kamakshi Memorial Trust is an Organization founded to help young students achieve their goals and fulfill their ambitions. This Trust is a made in her memory because for us she is IMMORTAL.
